“Play Music.Raise funds.Make an impact”

Play and raise is a music publicity, artist development and marketing strategy firm serving musicians and music-related brands.

We execute effective publicity campaigns, create long-term marketing plans called Total Tuneups, and act as thinking partners for artists in this ever-changing new music business.

Challenges

First up, choose your challenge! Think of your mission, program, and fundraising goals to find a challenge that fits.

Nonprofit organizations attract more attention and raise more funds with charity challenges that educate and excite supporters. Be sure to choose a meaningful activity that aligns with your mission and benefits a cause your audience will want to support.
